

Storm Inflicts Serious Damage At Columbiana

Homes and Property Destroyed In Three States; Seven Injured In Alabama

Residents of those sections of Alabama which were visited by tornadoic winds last Sunday began Monday to clean up the wreckage and resume normal activities. In the final checkup seven persons were known injured in Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Louisiana reported one death each in storms which raged there.

Reports from Tuscaloosa County Monday revealed that the storm also struck Duncanville in the southern part of the county, demolishing a church auditorium, inflicting about $800 damage on the building. A house occupied by Will Boykin was badly damaged, and garages and small buildings were demolished.

Another report stated a one-room schoolhouse at Rue, near the Moore's Bridge Road, in Tuscaloosa County, was demolished, and trees were twisted out of the ground in the Thompson Lake section.

Greatest damage in Alabama was reported at Columbiana, apparently near the focal point of a "twister" which ripped the roof and part of the top floor from Shelby County High School, reduced a home to kindling, tore the top half from another home and inflicted minor damages on others.

Residents Thankful

Columbiana residents were thankful that the storm left no injuries, and termed the escapes of many "miraculous."

James Hamilton, a vocational teacher, and his wife fled from the school building only minutes before the roof was taken off and dropped on Hamilton's car parked in front, mashing it. Chief Deputy Sheriff Claude Fore and his family had left for Birmingham shortly before the top of their home and furniture were scattered 75 yards, and J. C.

ORCHESTRA PRESENTS SECOND BROADCAST

Leaders Elected For College Night

Modeska Kirksey and Ruth Rice were victorious last week in the annual College Night elections for leaders of the Gold and Purple contest to take place February 23 and 24. Miss Kirksey, leader of the Golds, will have as her assistant Jean Watson. Miss Rice, leader of the Purples, will be assisted by Marjorie Oliver.

Other nominees for the important positions were Frances Douglas, Margaret Hannah Haslam, Naomi Favor, and Jean Letson.

The idea of College Night, the high spot of the year in Alabama College activities, was originated in 1920 as a small dining hall entertainment of faculty and students. Class presidents were leaders of the four competing teams. As the entertainments became more popular, it was moved to Reynolds Hall. Leaders, who were picked from the student body, selected their sides from the student roll.

College Night finally became so popular that it was presented two nights for visitors and one night for town people.

Four weeks before the performance is to be given, leaders and assistant leaders are selected. Stunts, impersonations, glee club arrangements, and songs are written and perfected the two weeks following the elections. During the last two weeks songs and plays are rehearsed.

Ten Families Need Help For Storm Damage

Mrs. Vines, of the National Red Cross, has been in Shelby County since last Sunday, investigating needs growing out of the storm which occurred in Columbiana and vicinity.

She reports that ten families will have to be rehabilitated. The National Red Cross, directing the work, is asking the local county chapter to provide funds and clothing for the families in distress, particularly to provide household furnishings.

Two families lost everything except the clothing they were wearing. Other families suffered losses of food stuff, and sustained other damages.

Mr. Glen Elliott, directing the local Red Cross work, requests that the people of Montevallo give as generously as they can in order to help meet the immediate needs of those who suffered losses in the disasters of last Sunday.

Another step has been taken toward the street paving project in Montevallo, wherein approval has been accorded the appropriation of $25,396 of federal funds. This information was given The Times in a telegram from Congressman Pete Jarman, under date of January 27. Mr. Jarman said:

"I am delighted to have information that presidential approval has been accorded WPA application for improvement of city-owned streets throughout Montevallo in the amount of $25,396. I am glad indeed to bring this good news to the city of Montevallo."

McCLOSKEY IS CIVIC CLUB SPEAKER

Dr. Gordon McCloskey, of the sociology department, Alabama College, was program speaker at the meeting of Montevallo Civic Club Wednesday. His subject was: "What is a Radical, and What Can You do with Him if and when You Find Him?"

The discussion of this question was highly interesting, and brought forth from several members some very appropriate comments and observations.

President Harman Announces Methods Of Liquidating College Obligations

President A. F. Harman has made the following statement concerning the methods of liquidating obligations incurred by the college in connection with the building program now under way.

"Comer hall, Tutwiler hall, the addition to the Library, and the remodeling of Reynolds hall so as to convert it into a College Union building have been made possible under grants and loans from the Public Works administration.

"The methods of liquidating the loans necessary for construction of the buildings were prescribed by the Federal Government. The college under authorization granted by the Board of Trustees is, therefore, under a contract with the Federal Government as to the grants, loans, and charges to be made in order to liquidate the loans. Under this requirement of the Government no other plans for the buildings were possible.

"On many occasions I have called attention to the long recognized necessity for expansion of the College plant. The Board of Trustees of the college, at its annual meeting in May, 1938, approved the president's recommendations for minimum building needs amounting to $600,000.00. The total program is not under way for the reason that the college is not financially able to sponsor it.

"Although we greatly regret that it is necessary to increase charges to students, under our contract with the government such levies in the

CHINESE ACTRESS APPEARS HERE

Soo Yong, known in motion picture circles as "the Chinese Cornelia Otis Skinner," will appear at Alabama College Friday night of this week in a program of original, humorous, and dramatic sketches. Miss Yong speaks perfect English, which, according to one critic should "put to shame many an American player."

Her appearance here is one of the scheduled numbers for this season on the Alabama College Concert and Lecture Series.

COLLEGE NOTES

The Glee Club will broadcast a program of semi-popular songs at the regular Sunday broadcast February 5 at 4 p.m.

Recent issues of "Women's Athletics" and the "Oklahoma School Journal" contained articles written by Miss Edythe Saylor, assistant professor of physical education, on the sports conference held here last November.

Pictures for "Technala" have been completed and sent to the engraver. The plates will be made and printing of the book completed in a few weeks.

Tryouts for a national oratorical contest will be held in February. All students are eligible. The girls will be selected by an impartial committee. The regional forensic tournament will be held at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C. The national tournament is at Topeka, Kansas, in April. Ellen Farish, representative of Alabama College last year, won first place in the national finals.

Mr. C. G. Sharp, head of the biology department, has been selected as one of America's "Men of Science" for his researches on blight and wilt diseases of the bean. He has recently been made a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. Douglas S. Freeman, famous biographer of Lee, and editor of The Richmond News-Leader, will give the first series of lectures on the Dancy Foundation at Alabama College April 27 and 28, it is announced by Dr. A. F. Harman.

Boy Scouts To Observe National Scout Week

Twenty-Ninth Anniversary Will Be Celebrated by Special Daily Activities

Responding to the theme "Scouting Carries on American Ideals," more than a million and a quarter scouts and Scouters will on February 8 launch a series of activities in celebration of Boy Scout Week, marking the 29th birthday of the Boy Scouts of America, first incorporated in the District of Columbia on February 9, 1910, and later granted a federal charter by Congress. Since the earliest Scouts were enrolled, a total of 8,400,000 boys and men have been members of the Boy Scout Movement in this country and have participated in its constructive program of participating citizenship activities, of which the current plans are typical.

The Scout birthday, Wednesday, February 8, will, according to Scout tradition, be the time when former and active Scouts and Scouters will be expected to re-pledge themselves to the Scout Promise, in their own homes or in their troops and patrols, as a demonstration of the way Scouting and Cubbing both seek to supplement and support the influence of the American home. It is expected that important national broadcasts will mark this phase of the Scout celebration including, it is hoped, one from the White House by President Roosevelt, who is likewise Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America.

Thursday, February 9, has been named Scout Citizenship Day, when in school assemblies and at other civic programs Scouts will demonstrate the contributions they are making to the civic life of their own school and community groups. Scouting is increasingly becoming a factor in the life of public and parochial schools throughout the nation and leading educators in all

AMERICA FACES A NEW ERA OF PROSPERITY

Here are ten basic reasons why we believe this nation is on the threshold of one of the greatest periods of business expansion in her entire history!

1. The huge long term armament program of all nations is going forward at a feverish pace with no prospect of diminishing.

2. The rise in security prices is aiding business. Values have already increased over $15,000,000,000 since June 1, 1938.

3. Building is 10 per cent ahead of a year ago and is rising sensationally. Its expansion cycle is coinciding with the business cycle for the first time in 20 years.

4. The potential demand for goods, caused by huge shortages of homes, railroad equipment, machinery, and thousands of other products is the largest in our history.

5. Carloadings have reached a new high; steel operations are above pay point; textile activity has risen to 1937 levels.

6. The greatest money supply in our history is available for the purchase of securities.

7. Credit reserves of our banking system can finance a business expansion of $250,000,000,000 compared with an actual expansion of $55,000,000,000 at the 1929 boom peak.

8. With 1940 in mind, the Administration is laying the groundwork for a bull market in political cooperation.

9. The U. S. Treasury will pour over 2 billion dollars into the stream of industry during the next four months.

10. Business is at a new peak and is pushing upward vigorously.—Babson's Report.

DIXONS TRANSFER CHURCH LETTERS TO FIRST BAPTIST

Gov. Frank M. Dixon, Mrs. Dixon, and their daughter, Launa, became members of the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.

When, in the course of the morning worship, the Rev. E. Frank Tripp, pastor, opened the doors of the church, the Dixons walked forward and presented their letters of membership brought from the Southside Baptist Church, of Birmingham. Also presented was the letter of their son, Sam Perry Dixon, absent at school.—Montgomery Advertiser.

BOY SCOUTS

The Scout cabin is near enough to completion that we may breathe easy. The most outstanding things to be done yet are filling in holes and pits and furnishing the cabin.

We are very proud of our cabin and truly thankful to those responsible for its construction. The work we put on it helps to stimulate our interest in it, and we invite all who are interested to come and give it the "once over."

Uniforms

We are making a drive at present to have our troop in full uniform. Some of the members are going to work at odd jobs to earn their uniforms. Spring and summer will be welcomed by the Scouts as we can try our materials on camping trips.

Baptist Church

Dr. Pearson will preach Sunday morning on the text, "My Kingdom is Not of This World." Sunday evening he will speak on "It's Just a Habit." Remember the Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., and the Baptist Training Union at 6:45 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their sympathy, kindness and beautiful floral offerings during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother.—Mr. L. W. Colburn and Family.

PLANT CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS NOW

Auburn, Ala.—Are you one of the many persons who was annoyed last Christmas by having to scour the woods for suitable decorative plants for the home? If you are, Homer S. Fisher, landscape gardener of the Alabama Extension Service, offers a suggestion.

He says you can put out plants now and get your decorations out of your own yard next December. Some of the plants for putting out during the next few weeks are yunan firethorn, nandina, some of the privets for berries and foliage, and photinia for foliage. Many of the conifers, such as pfitzer juniper, plume retinisporea, and the American forms of arborvitae can be adapted to inside decorations.

ALABAMA GAME FISHES

The Department of Conservation now has available for free distribution a mimeographed bulletin on game fishes in Alabama. Prepared primarily for use in schools, it also contains information valuable to anglers and others concerned with conservation of wildlife. The bulletin lists the three chief game fishes—black bass, bream and crappie—with descriptions of each and something about their habits. It also reviews fishing areas, restocking, and laws. Copies may be obtained by writing the Department of Conservation, State Capitol, Montgomery.

Scout Week

sections are cooperating to that end.
Friday, February 10, will be Scout Brotherhood Day, when every Scout troop meeting that night is urged to have Scout guests from other troops especially for demonstrating the Scouting truth that a Scout is a brother to every other Scout, regardless of race, creed or class.
Saturday, February 11, is Scout Service Day. On this day all troops are requested to perform some service for their sponsoring institution or community to illustrate the well-established fact that "A Scout is Helpful."

Sunday, February 12, or in case of Scouts of the Jewish faith, the previous Friday or Saturday, will be Scout Church Day and will offer each Scout and Scouter an opportunity to fulfill his solemn obligation to the twelfth part of the Scout Law—"A Scout is Reverent. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion." More than fifty per cent of all troops, Cub packs and Sea Scout ships are sponsored by churches, religious bodies, and societies, and Scouting recognizes and actually supports the place of religion in American life.

Monday, February 13, has been designated as Scout Dedication Day especially for Senior Scouts, including Sea Scouts, Explorer Scouts, and Rover Scouts. For this group there has recently been written a "Senior Scout Citizenship Dedication" by Chief Scout Executive James E. West, and so they are planning ceremonies of dedication either in their meeting shrines or points of historical interest.

Tuesday, February 14, the final day of Boy Scout Week is Scout fun day and should be devoted to events showing Scouting's contributions to American life as a leisure-time program offering boys and young men wholesome recreation. In addition to troop parties and Senior Scout social activities, many other ways of furthering the so-called play way of Scouting should be planned.

Storm Damage

Peoples and family watched their home being torn to pieces from a house across the street.
The home of Senator Karl Harrison was among those damaged. A home on the Shelby Road, out from Columbiana, was demolished. There were no persons in any of the buildings demolished at Columbiana. Minor damage was done to a large number of houses.

Repairs Needed

Many homes were left in need of repair near Childersburg, in Talladega County; Coker and Moore's Bridge, Tuscaloosa County; Moundville, in Hale County; and near Golden, Miss., just across the Alabama line from Red Bay in Franklin County.

For maximum corn yields it is better to keep the summer legumes and the corn separate since the latter is bound to reduce the yield of corn, especially in sections subject to drouth, says W. H. Gregory, associate agronomy specialist of the State Extension Service.

CENTRAL ALABAMA TRIALS

Resumption of the Central Alabama field trials this year was announced recently by officials of the club. The 15th annual event will begin February 22 on the Sage estate in Dallas County, according to Cohen Stapp, president, and I. J. Hix, secretary, both of Selma. The trials were not held last year for the first time in many years, and sportsmen welcome the return of one of the oldest and most popular bird dog events in the state. Drawing will be held at Hotel Albert, Selma, on the night of February 21, and the running will start the next morning. Dogs must be owned and handled by a club member, dues of which are $5. The event will be strictly an amateur trial, and the winners of first places in derby and all-age stakes will win legs on the handsome cups given by A. G. C. Sage and Russell Perkins. Horses will be available. Further information and reservations may be obtained by writing Secretary I. J. Hix, at Selma.

Does Your Kitchen Need Improving?

Auburn, Ala. — Recent surveys show that the majority of farm kitchens are lacking in modern conveniences, poorly arranged for comfort, and have limited equipment with which to work. Statistics also show that 70 per cent of the average housekeeper's day is spent in and around the kitchen. For this reason the kitchen should be the most convenient and most cheerful room in the house, says Nell Pickens, extension specialist in home management.

"It may not be possible to do all that is necessary to bring a kitchen up to desirable standards in one year, but the farm woman should make a definite plan and each change or improvement should be a step toward the final goal," advises Miss Pickens.

Some suggestions offered by Miss Pickens for improving the kitchen are:

Check conditions of kitchen. Plan for improvements to be made in order of importance or according to resources available.

See that your farm kitchen eventually will have: Convenient working surfaces, arrangement for saving steps, proper working heights, adequate storage space, sufficient natural and artificial light, proper ventilation, sanitary surfaces, enough equipment of right kind to make work easy, pleasing colors.
